

BAPTISTS GAINED MILLION MEMBERS IN THREE YEARS

Over Eight Million Regular Missionary Baptists in the United States Report of Recent Survey Discloses.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 1.—American Baptists gained a million members in the three years from 1918 to 1921, inclusive according to a survey that has just been completed by Dr. E. P. Alldredge, secretary of survey, statistics and information of the Baptist Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

It took 220 years for the Baptists of North America, including in this designation only the regular missionary Baptists of the United States and Canada, to gain their first million members, the survey reveals, this period being from 1639 to 1859. The second million, however, was obtained in only 20 years, from 1859 to 1879, this period embracing the Civil War and the Reconstruction era. The third million was obtained in only ten years, while the fourth million came in 8 years, the fifth in nine years, the sixth in seven years, the seventh in five years and the eighth in 3 years, the total figures for regular missionary Baptists in the United States and Canada in 1921 being 8,115,445.

White Southern Baptists alone baptized over 250,000 new converts during 1921.

CARDINALS HOME SATURDAY FROM LOUISA.

The Kentucky Cardinal band will arrive home Saturday afternoon and on Sunday evening at 8:30 will render a concert at the band stand. They will leave at 6 o'clock Monday morning by automobiles for Paris where they make music for a big rally for a public play ground. The band made a great hit at Louisa this week. The Louisa Recorder and the Big Sandy News pay them high compliments by saying they made the best music ever heard in that city.

MOST IMPORTANT SERIES IN LAST HALF STARTS

Mayville Cards to Play Three Games With Lexington Beginning Saturday That May Greatly Change Standing

The most important series of games of the second half of the B. G. L. schedule as a result of the close standing of the first four clubs which but a single game separates them, will start at league park Saturday when the Cardinals will entertain the Lexington Studebakers for three games.

This is going to be the best chance of the season for the Cards to regain their lost leadership of the league for Lexington is in a very crippled condition at present with their hurling staff "all shot" and their individual star Jim Park out of the game with malaria fever and the two leaders of the league at present, Paris and Cythiana, engaged in a three game series at Paris. Blakefield, lately acquired by the Cards from Paris, will make his first start with the locals in Saturday's game. Bosken, who is just about recovered from his injury received at Lexington a month or so ago, will resume his duties again in Sunday's fray; followed by the old reliable Miner on Monday, Labor Day. If these three hurlers with Shaw do not form the best hurling corps in the circuit some one please tell who does and it looks like two out of three from the Studebs, or maybe a clean sweep of all three games.

Play will start at 3 o'clock in all games.

FOOTBALL TO BE REVIVED AT HIGH SCHOOL WEDNESDAY

Coch Schneider to Devote Much Attention to Football This Fall—First Call Expected to Bring Out Big Squad.

Football, after several years vacation, is to be revived at the High School when school reopens next week. Mayville is the only community of its size in the state that does not have a high school football team and it is to remedy that condition that arrangements have been made to secure a field for practice and playing and an instructor secured who has had several years experience in the class room and considerable success on the athletic field.

The authorities who regulate the game of football by formulating rules, etc., have done much in recent years to eliminate the objectionable and dangerous. With the open game as distinguished from the mass game of former years when brute force was an asset, the team with the best morale wins. It is seldom that one hears of a serious injury to a football player. Constant practice will do much toward preventing injury.

The training which will begin on Wednesday will consist of becoming acquainted with the rudiments of the game, falling on the ball, tackling, team play, etc. As the game is played on the ground, the squad will first become acquainted with the ground. With interest in the game where it is and with the material available, the coach should have at least fifty boys answer his call on Wednesday.

Profits so small on school books, we ask our friends to pay cash. 31-St

SHOWALTER LOSES ONE AND IS TIED FOR SECOND

Kentuckian Drops One Game and Loses Hold in Chess Championship But Is Tied For Second Place.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 2. — Samuel Factor of Chicago, Friday night was leading at the end of the sixth round in the western chess association tournament here, with a record of five and one-half games won to one-half game lost. However, when play was adjourned Friday night, I. Spero of Cleveland, was two pawns ahead and the best Factor can hope for is a draw.

Jackson W. Showalter of Georgetown, Ky., and Edward Lasker of Chicago, are tied for second place, with six victories and one defeat each. N. T. Whitaker of Washington, has won five and lost one, while E. W. Gruer of San Francisco, has won four and lost two.

Results of Friday's play follow: Gruer beat Alex J. Conen, Louisville; Factor beat Showalter; H. Hahlbohm, Chicago, beat F. A. Holloway, Grand Rapids; F. E. Judge, Cincinnati, beat Spero; Lasker beat Whitaker; J. H. Norris, Hoopstown, Ill., and M. Palmer, Tama, Ia., played to a draw; Factor beat Norris; Conen beat Hahlbohm; Lasker beat Gruer; Showalter beat Holloway; Whitaker beat Judge; Spero beat Palmer; Lasker beat Conen; Showalter beat Hahlbohm, and Norris beat Holloway.

FAR SWEEPING IS INJUNCTION AGAINST STRIKING UNIONS

Attorney General Gets Powerful Injunction From Federal Court at Chicago Against Shop Crafts Unions Now On Strike.

Chicago, Sept. 1. — Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty in the District Federal Court at noon today obtained from Judge J. H. Wilkerson the most sweeping temporary injunction against labor unions ever issued by a Federal court. The Attorney General was accompanied by Blackburn Esterline, Assistant Solicitor General, and a swarm of other assistants from the Washington office.

The injunction is directed against the six shopcrafts now involved in a life and death struggle with the railroads. The temporary injunction makes it a punishable offense to carry on the strike, to support the strikers, which incidentally means to collect union dues and pay the strike benefits or to obstruct railroad transportation in any way.

It restrains shopmen from "interfering with the repair, inspection and operation of trains, locomotives and cars."

It restrains the shopmen and others from "conspiring or agreeing with other organizations to obstruct transportation."

The open shop is indorsed and supported. The document restrains shopmen from attending public mass meetings. Jeers, humiliating epithets, taunts or threats are barred. It restrains the shopmen from giving or causing newspaper interviews to be published.

Excerpts from the Attorney General's plea follow:

"I will use the power of the Government of the United States, within my control, to present the labor union of the country from destroying the open shop."

"No union or combination of unions can, under our laws, dictate to the American people."

"No labor leader or capitalistic leader, no organization or association of any kind will be permitted by the Government of the United States to laugh in the frozen faces of a famishing people, without prompt prosecution and proper punishment."

GENERAS STRIKE IS URGED AFTER INJUNCTION ISSUE

President Gompers Is Asked to Recommend a General Sympathetic Walkout as Result of Rail Injunction.

Washington, Sept. 2. — Threat of widespread industrial warfare hung over the country today as a result of the sweeping injunction obtained by Harry M. Daugherty, attorney general, against the striking railroad shopmen.

Demands for a general sympathetic strike poured in on Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, from all parts of the country.

The issue of a general strike will be placed before the executive council of the American Federation at a meeting here next week, Gompers said.

Gompers and other labor leaders here characterized the federal injunction restraining the strikers and their leaders from interfering in any way with transportation, including giving out of interviews, as "one of the most outrageous pieces of business in the history of the country."

William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, one of the shopcrafts' organizations on strike, asserted he would continue to exercise his constitutional rights.

This, with the statement of Gompers that the strikers and their leaders would not permit abridgement of the rights guaranteed them by the constitution, was accepted as indicating that the shopmen would defy those parts of the injunction dealing with assembly and speech.

PROHIBITION AGENTS ACTIVE AGAINST FAKE
DRINKS BEING OFFERED.
Department of Prohibition Making
Rapid Strides Toward Wiping Out
The Many Substitutes
Concocted.

Federal Prohibition Director Sam Collins states that Commissioner Roy Haynes has instituted a series of conferences of directors and other enforcement officials in various sections of the country to discuss numerous problems and map out plans for solution, and a conference will soon be held in this state. Several such conferences have already been held and matters of vital concern to the public have been considered.

Among the problems on which action will be taken is that of rubbing compounds, which through bootleg channels have caused many deaths. Analyses of several hundred gallons of seized product revealed quantities of concentrated lye, an excessive amount of which remained in the compound even after redistillation. Conspiracy sections of the Volstead Act will be evoked against cereal beverage manufacturers who inject such rubbing compounds into so-called "near-beer."

Recent conferences have resulted in recommendations that retail sales of Jamaica ginger be limited to one fluid ounce, and exposure of an alleged German fake preparation reputed to produce, wine, champagne and brandy; also the successful suppression of a fraud to hoodwink the public with so-called "Canadian rye."

Directors have been instructed to educate agents along the lines of manufacture and transportation of industrial or denatured alcohol. The men will be taught the difference in varieties of alcohol and it is believed that violations of this nature will be greatly lessened.

A signal victory for enforcement was the recent announcement by a leading vaudeville circuit that performers would not be allowed to make humorous reference to the 18th amendment. Commissioner Haynes is elated that within so short a space of time such splendid compliance with a request made by him upon assuming his duties a little over a year ago has been secured, and that editorial and news writers, cartoonists, reporters, scenario writers, playwrights and performers are lending every aid to law enforcement, thus sounding the prohibition joke death knell.

Over 12,000 convictions for violation of the 18th amendment have been obtained in federal courts throughout the country during the past year, showing that courts and juries are displaying an improved attitude.

In the opinion of Commissioner Haynes the most effective weapon in the hands of enforcement officials is the "padlock" provisions, which provides that a place may be closed as a nuisance. This provision is being enforced throughout the country, some of the most notorious resorts being effected by its operation.

Conferences will discuss the proposal made by certain directors that Bertillon records be kept of every captured bootlegger and moonshiner in order that prompt and accurate identification may be made of persons who violate the prohibition laws, as well as other criminals. The records would be sent to police departments all over the country and, it is believed, would aid materially in suppressing bootleggers' activities.

Unspeakeable conditions surround the manufacture of bootleg whisky, according to daily reports being received by Commissioner Haynes concerning the unsanitary locations of stills, and vermin, maggots and dead animals of all kinds which have been discovered in vats of mash. In many instances concentrated lye is used to hasten fermentation, as many as 200 empty lye cans being found in one place, which gives one an idea of the amount of this stuff used and the extremely poisonous mixture which results.

Perhaps the most revolting method employed by violators which has yet come to the notice of enforcement authorities is that by which cadaver vats containing bodies used by university students for dissection work are being drained of alcohol for bootleg purposes. Although the stuff is redistilled before being distributed, wood alcohol poisoning remains, according to analyses of some of the seized product.

TELEPHONE DEVICE EXPOSED

BRIBE TRANSACTION, CHARGE.
Louisville. — Joseph M. Stiebler is charged with being the man who attempted to bribe a federal prohibition agent, J. L. Asher, Sr., to permit real beer from the Central Consumers Company to be distributed to various saloons. Stiebler, it is understood, will be the only one arrested in the beer distribution case which culminated in a dozen raids, seizure of 25,000 bottles of beer and the seizure for the third time of the Frank Fehr Brewery. Detective St. Clair Monday night went to Asher's home and installed a telephone device. Early Tuesday the officers said, Stiebler appeared. With St. Clair, Wooten, Asher, son and Mrs. Asher listening upstairs, Stiebler is said to have outlined his proposition to Asher.

STEPPED INTO LINE OF FIRE, NEW MURDER THEORY.
Louisville. — Taht Walter Rothweiler, killed at the mouth of an alley, was the victim of a stray charge fired by another, is the theory advanced by police. Bud Hollis, Negro, was sought in connection with the case. Police say they had information that Hollis had fired in the alley at Robert Humphrey, Negro, after the latter had visited his wife, Ethel Humphrey, from whom he was separated. The theory of the police is that the victim stepped into the mouth of the alley and the path of the line of fire just as Hollis fired.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeannie Price

New York. — Five year old Margie Axton kept the police 'phone and wires busy the other day for two solid hours just because she was so agreeable. Policeman Donlin saw her wandering aimlessly across the street from the station and decided she was lost. He walked across and questioned her and then took her over to the station. "Did you come from a long ways off somewhere?" he asked. "Yes," said Margie. "Dir strangers bring you?" "yes," she agreed again. The police hurriedly sent descriptions of the child to nearby towns. For two hours, they tried to solve the mystery of her disappearance. Then the 'phone rang and a woman said she was the child's mother and would hurry right over. She was Mrs. James Axton. The police tried to explain that the child was kidnapped. "Kidnaped!" she exclaimed. "Heavens, we light right around the corner, only three doors away." "Why, little girl," reproached Officer Donlin, "Why did you tell us all that?" "Mother always told me to be nice to policemen," she replied, "so I didn't want to say, 'no,' when you asked me things."

He is as old as the ages, and as young as a butterfly. and I have selected him to be the only member of my news staff. I shall call him Ernest Aimless. He is in the habit of buying newspapers and magazines from a woman news dealer at Madison avenue and Forty-second street. Now of all spots in the world that is one where human faith would hold least. In the direct path to the Grand Central Station there are probably more confidence people and fakirs crossing this point than any other cross road we have. Yet he went up to this good merchant woman and told her that he wished a thirty-five cent magazine, but didn't have any money with him to pay for it. Not only did she give it to him, but inquired as follows, "Do you need any more? How are you going out tonight? Here take something to have in your pockets." To indicate the volume of her generosity, Ernest said she produced the most tempting roll of bills he had ever seen. And yet some people think they are poor.

than Judge Alfred J. Talley of the General Sessions. When the judge recovered from his surprise, he pretended to be very covert in the negotiations and took the salesman into one of the inner sanctums of his chambers, and confronted him with a detective. Luckily for the vendor he had a bill of sale for his goods, but the judge discovered in his examination, that it is a common practice for legitimate fur salesmen to hire trucks, overalls, and thus masquerading as jobbers, fool the passerby into thinking he is picking up a bargain direct from the Hudson Bay district.

THE PROPER COURSE
Information of Priceless Value to Every Maysville Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of incalculable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Maysville citizen who used the same and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Ben P. Fleming, county constable, 228 Limestone street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years when I have needed them. At times my kidneys got out of order and I suffered with a dull constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage. A box or so of Doan's never fails to relieve the trouble in a short time."

The above statement was given November 14, 1916, and on November 22, 1926 Mr. Fleming added: "I am glad to renew the statement I gave for Doan's some years ago as the cure they made for me has been permanent."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fleming had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

We have another instance of a woman forsaking society for the stage. This time it is Miss Isabel Townsend Pell, a recent debutante, prominent in Newport and Westbury as well as New York. Her first appearance in "Fools Errand," just opened, and hopelessly enough, she has not tried to do more than one should in going into this very delicate end of theatricals. She is content with the part of a maid, and says she doesn't mind staying with such parts for ten years, if necessary to get hold of the technique of her job. The audience, the opening night of the performance, was more than usually socially representative, to bid her welcome.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NEHEMIAS REBUILDS THE WALLS OF JERUSALEM.

Nehemiah 3:1-7:4.

Old-time Cities—It was a fine thing to have part in rebuilding the walls of a city in these good old days. Without these the city was defenseless. It would seem odd to us now days to see a city hedged about with stone walls and no entrance save through the big gates. But before powder came into use and cannons were made all cities were surrounded thus by walls. Sometimes these walls were twenty and thirty feet high and from five to ten or more feet thick. The walls of Jerusalem were so wide that great chariots could pass each other on the top of them.

Jerusalem was a great center. It was a strategic point. The religion of Judah and also the life of its inhabitants were in constant danger from the heathen nations by which she was surrounded. And being a strategic point, no permanent national reconstruction, therefore, was possible until Jerusalem had been protected thus by these walls but the foes had now torn them down and destroyed the defenses and during the captivity the whole city lay open to attack. Many good causes lie open to attack in this way from evil sources and we like Nehemiah are called upon to build a defense. We should reconstruct in this our day to protect the faith of our fathers.

Opposition to the Reconstruction.—Well did you ever see a good cause but that it had its antagonists. There is generally some one around to oppose or say it cannot be done. And Nehemiah also had opposition. Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite determined to oppose him. You know that when Jerusalem fell and the Jews were carried away these Ammonites and Moabites, and etc., had rejoiced, for they believed that hence forth the land would be theirs. Therefore every step of the reconstruction was contested and every returning Jew was their enemy. They had interfered thus with Ezra and been a constant bother to the returning exiles. Now it was good for these Jews to return and it was evil for these tribes to contest them but whenever any evil is disturbed by good people it is certain to do all possible to interfere with the success of the good.

Careful Planning.—Nehemiah arrived safely, and went about quietly to see what was needed and to plan the best way of taking up this task. He did not at first announce what was his purpose in coming but went out with a few men in the night to study the situation. He then called together the rulers of the city and addressed them. He told them how that the king was touched with their condition and had given him authority to repair it. He reminded them of the opposition and how he would need their help and cooperation in this undertaking. He also urged them to put their trust in God and work diligently. These two were moved by his appeal and cried out, "Let us arise and build." But the heathen enemies had received the news also and began at once to conceive of a plan to thwart this forward movement. They set that a wrong interpretation can be put upon the words of Nehemiah. So they cry out, "What is this thing ye do? Will ye rebel against the king?"

Need of Co-operation.—all went to work. In general each man repaired over against his own home. The part nearest for him to reach was what he could best handle. In the Scriptures are the names of certain of those who labored on these walls—thus their names are immortalized by this useful service. Laying stones in a wall was no doubt an unusual way of gaining a name in the Sacred writings but that was a religious task. It was patriotic too. Many a man has become famous for doing less than this. All could not be mentioned but we know they did their share, and were honored by our God, and that counts after all.

The enemies were stirred to great indignation. Perhaps some were poor masons, maybe some were inexperienced for Tobiah said in mockery "Even that they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their wall." But scorn did not stop these loyal men. It hurt them no doubt but made them work the better. The opposition became stronger until each must work and watch.

Working and Watching.—He had each of the builders arm themselves and half worked while half stood ready with weapons to protect them. A trumpeter stood by the side of Nehemiah to give the alarm should trouble arise. In this world we are in a fight and must put on the armor of God to fight the fiery darts of evil.

The management of the Washington Opera House proposed to have at least three good shows a month at the local play house this fall and winter.

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake, Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weakness and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailment. You may publish this letter if you wish."—Mrs. MARY SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine.

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?
